Those who love to shop can stroll past dozens of unique stores, and those with a sweet tooth can stop in at Mast General Store's Candy Barrel or Stick Boy Bakery for a delectable treat! Tweetsie Railroad, Mystery Hill and Fun Wheels are just a short drive away for those with kids. Outdoor enthusiasts will want to visit the nearby Blue Ridge Parkway, Elk Knob State Park or Grandfather Mountain for an afternoon of riding bikes, hiking, horseback riding, picnicking, and enjoying the deer and flocks of turkey that abound! Todd, a former lumber town on the New River, is just five minutes away from Mountain Moments. RiverGirl Fishing Company, housed in the old railroad depot, rents out canoes, kayaks, tubes and bikes, has tubing expeditions on the beautiful river, and provides fishing supplies and fly-fishing lessons. The Todd Mercantile is an arts and crafts gift store and bakery in the middle of the village, Helen, the owner, will tell you whatever you want to know about Todd. Most weekends there are dances or mountain music in the Walter & Anne Cook Memorial Park. Unwind after all this excitement with a quiet night in the cabin. Colorful curtains, pillows that add a pop of color, and wall art will make you feel right at home. Natural light filters sunshine in through the windows as you enjoy the mountain views. In the open living area of Mountain Moments, sit back and relax on the comfy sofa or in the matching love seat as you watch TV. This area is a great place to relax while you vacation. Have a family movie night if you're with the kids, or bring some romantic comedies if it's just the two of you. Cuddle in the warmth of the wood burning fireplace on a cool Carolina night. Mountain Moments also has a fully-equipped, bright and spacious kitchen to enjoy preparing a family meal or snack. The kitchen area is ready for you to use offering an electric range/oven, microwave, full size refrigerator, dishwasher, blender, and more. You can cook a delicious breakfast spread before pouring a hot cup of coffee to enjoy at the patio set on the porch. The dining area features a dining table for six and there is additional seating at the kitchen island. Located on the right side of the cabin is the master bedroom which offers a comfy king bed and large bath with soaking tub and separate shower. To the left of the living area are two more bedrooms for additional sleeping space. One features a queen bed and the second features a set of bunks twin bunks and a twin bed. Another full bath is accessed at the end of the hall. Downstairs you will find a ping pong table great for an evening of friendly family competition, and a garage for parking your vehicle if you desire. Take a moment to breathe in the fresh mountain air and enjoy the porch furniture with comfortable cushions on the back porch. There's even a fenced in yard for your pet. A gas grill is also provided.
